

Altec Sponsors DFC Consultants, Ltd. Summer User Group Event, Contributing Networking and Knowledge on Going Paperless with doc-link[™] for Microsoft Dynamics

DFC Consultants Ltd.—A Microsoft Certified Partner—and Altec will offer information on improving efficiencies with document management technology that can be integrated with Microsoft Dynamics GP and WennSoft

Laguna Hills, CA—June 19, 2014—Altec Products, Inc., a leading provider of integrated document management (IDM) and workflow solutions, is pleased to announce its sponsorship of the DFC Consultants Summer User Group Event to take place next week. Microsoft Dynamics and WennSoft users who register for this free event will learn how to save time and work smarter by going paperless.

Founded in Dickinson, ND in 1989, DFC Consultants now operates as a Microsoft Certified Gold Partner and has three locations spread across North Dakota. A proven leader in accounting services and software sales, the company matches only the best software solution to each individual and has successfully helped countless customers streamline their business practices.

On June 25th at the Microsoft Campus in Fargo, ND and on June 26th in Bismarck, DFC Consultants will demonstrate how organizations can eliminate paper, thus saving money, strengthening internal controls, expediting business processes and maximizing productivity. These two afternoons will offer valuable tools including a presentation by Altec titled “Going Paperless with doc-link for Dynamics GP.” Altec Sales Director Scott Hall will speak and especially looks forward to answering guests’ questions. Hall states, “Lately, we’ve heard from a great deal of companies commenting on their quick ROI after implementing doc-link. I’m excited to show the Summer User Group attendees just how easy it is to increase company efficiencies and experience instantaneous results.”

Altec will also sponsor the DFC Consultants Annual Customer Symposium on October 8th at the Microsoft Campus in Fargo, ND. This full-day event will include presentations on a variety of different topics and solutions that will enhance the user’s experience with Dynamics GP. Attendees will gain valuable information on how to best utilize the existing features of their ERP and add functionality through the best of the integrated ISV solutions. Three “Customer of the Year” awards will be bestowed upon businesses that have achieved measurable success or productivity in their particular industries through use of software solutions implemented through DFC. Organizations who wish to be considered for one of the three annual awards should submit their applications to szimara@DFCconsultants.com by September 15, 2014.
